

Team News at Windisch Law Offices

David Johannes Kraß joins Windisch Law Offices in April 2010

As a graduate from the University Saarbrücken and a Masters of Laws, at the University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand, David Johannes Kraß worked several years at the institute of administrative law and as a tutor in various legal areas. Having had his main educational focus on European labor and social security law David Johannes Kraß now wishes to continue his international work as an attorney.

We place particular emphasis on providing excellent training to young lawyers – Windisch Law Offices have therefore been providing training placements to graduate lawyers from Austria and Germany since 2007.

„We’ve always found committed international trainee lawyers to be a great addition to our team. I’m looking forward that David Johannes Kraß will be joining us, bringing additional expertise in international business law”, says Dr. Bettina Windisch-Altieri who founded the independent Windisch Law Offices in 2007.

Windisch Law Offices specialises in business law and serves clientele from organisations across many industries, both on a national and an international level. Our key areas of expertise include corporate law and M&A, as well as company, media and entertainment law.
